

I want you to see Michael through me!

Michael Jackson Performer Masaki

Born in 1982 in Miyazaki and raised in Kyoto, Masaki first discovered his true appreciation for Michael Jackson's talent in 2010. With the aim to preserve Michael's unique dance style, he adapted Michael's persona and has since performed in solo and group acts. He has incorporated tsuzumi (a Japanese-style hand drum) into some of his performances, and has even appeared with them in a TV commercial. He has also toured the world as a djembe player. In the future, he plans to conduct workshops on dance technique and collaborate with artists specialising in other genres.
